

Do I have to have Uninsured Motorist Coverage?

The State of Texas requires you to have liability coverage. Many people choose to have collision coverage. However, still others question acquiring another available coverage called Underinsured & Uninsured motorist.

So, yes it is important to understand how this additional exposure might be a concern to you and how, in your best interests, it can be dealt with.

This option pays for your expenses arising from a Not-at-fault accident due to a lack of insurance, or inadequate insurance on the part of the other person who caused the accident. The policy can also pay for the expenses resulting from hit-and-run accidents. (of course you must promptly report the accident to the police.)

Call us today to find out about the two types of uninsured / underinsured motorist coverages offered in Texas and how it can protect you, your family, the passengers in your car, and even others while driving your car.